

Albury Basketball Association Albury Cougars Junior Representative Program

APPENDIX C: FEE STRUCTURE

Purpose

The purpose of this fee structure is to ensure that current and prospective representative players are aware of the financial commitments involved in participating in the Albury Cougars representative program.

Background

Player fees are calculated each year as part of the annual budget process. This process relies on information from external parties including Basketball NSW, merchandise suppliers and basketball facility owners such as Albury City Council and The Scots School.

The Cougars Junior Representative Program is designed to run as a cost-neutral program for the Albury Basketball Association. These fees are subject to change each year depending on the levels of sponsorship, fundraising and fees charged by external parties.

Players must be financial prior to the commencement of the Waratah Junior Leagues to participate in the Southern Junior League (SJL) or Junior Premier League (JPL).

Fee Structure – 2024/25

Squad Acceptance Fee – payable by all players selected in the squads

Academy Team Player Fee – payable by all players selected in the Cougars Academy

SJL Team Player Fee – payable by all players selected in teams to play in the SJL

JPL Team Player Fee – payable by all players selected in teams to play in the JPL
(it is a requirement for teams to attend a qualifying tournament before any team can play in the JPL with more)

	Cougars Academy	SJL	JPL
Total Levy	$300	$600	$600*
Squad Acceptance Fee	$200	$200	$200
Team Player Fee	$100	$400	$400*

* information is still to be released by BNSW on the timing and associated costs for participation in the JPL competition. Teams must attend JPL trials and need to qualify before they are invited to play in the JPL competition.

Note: Above fees include warmup top and sweat towel, Blitz and Wodonga Tournaments. SJL & JPL fees also includes round costs (game fees, team nominations and referees). Fees do not cover additional club merchandise or travel and accommodation.
